The Babylon Citizen Council on the Arts (Bacca) is a non-profit cultural and arts resource center serving the needs of residents, artists and art organizations throughout the Town of Babylon. The Babylon Citizens Council on the Arts seeks to develop, sponsor and present artistic, cultural and educational programs, to promote the arts, and to support and encourage artists and art organizations in their endeavors.

The Babylon Citizens Council on the Arts programs are made possible in part with public funds from NYSCA, the NY State Council on the Arts; the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation under the auspices of Senators Owen H. Johnson and Charles Fuschillo, Jr. ; the Suffolk County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation under the auspices of County Legislator Wayne Horsley; County Legislator DuWayne Horsley; the Suffolk County Dept. of Economic Development/Workforce Housing; and the Town of Babylon, Supervisor Steven Bellone.
